Theodora Caldwell has become enged to Jimmy Bland and to her exprise is not happy about it. She ills her employer, Richard Blakes lee, that she is leaving to be mar-ried, and he refuses to let her go. ried, and he refuses to let her go. They have a battle of words and Theo apparently wins out, but then the unexpected happens, and Blakeslee kidnaps her and carries her off on his private yacht, not because he is in-terested in her as a woman, but because he needs her services on a bustness trip. But from the very begin-ning, Blakeslee discovers that Theo-has suddenly become a personality, But from the very begin instead of an office machine, and when she refuses to do any work he is at a loss to know what to do.

CHAPTER XVI The Storm

"He's never made a chance," mocked For a moment she was really fright hour? Hope this is not too long for the Late that afternoon, after a lunch Tomorrow—"You Little Fool;"

which she had eaten alone in the dining salon, the yacht began to roll uneas-ily. The sun went under a bank of

CALL THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPE

ily. The sun went under a clouds and an ominous air of something about to happen settled down over 'Are we going to have a storm?' Theo asked lazily of the steward, who had come out to adjust the deck awn-

"Somewhere off the const of Virginia," he answered, but at that moment a vicious gust of wind swept cross the deck, entrying with it the first drops of rain.

her reason quickly, and she was ened as she stood there clinging to the column I shall ashamed of herself for admitting the rail. She felt terrifyingly alone, with HEART-BRIOKEN.

Then she set the set of the rail be and the soner you put the set of the rail be the suddenly a wall of green water loomed up out of the darkness, broke about it, not even to decide whether the loved him or not, but she would be the set of the rail to which she clung dizzily with about it, not even to decide whether the loved him or not, but she would be the set of the rail to which she clung dizzily with both hands. She was afraid to let go and make a dash for it.

HEART-BRIOKEN.

HEART-BRIOKEN.

HEART-BRIOKEN.

Do not meet this man again. He has deer ved you and is not worthy of your motive in the soner you put both of them out of your mind the happing you will be.

The Candy Will Be Enough

Dear Cynthia—It certainly is a great thing for us young folks that the Evening Purnic Ledger allows space in their words allows.

And then Theo realized where her thoughts had been delta. thoughts had been drifting, and with board and she was suddenly frightened swiftly flushing cheeks she opened the as she had never in all her life been magazine to an interesting story and frightened before.

One-half teaspoon of cloves, One-half teaspoon of allspice,

Elderberry Jelly

Green Tomato Preserve

Our cap of boiling water. Two packages of seeded vaisins,

One cap of preserved ginger,

Three pounds of sugar.

our pints of elderberries

One-half teaspoon of ginger.

· Add Crabapples and Elderberries to the Preserve Shelf, Urges Mrs. Wilson

A Tasty Butter, a Marmalade or a Spiced Cheese Forms a Pleasant Variation From Usual Jelly-Green Tomato Preserve Is Delicious

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

Copyright, 1921, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson. Soft. Let cool, then rub through fine sleve to remove which and roads much fine.

CRABAPPLES are still to be found from our Northern orchards, and the mild September days give new year to from our Northern orchards, and the mild September days give new zest to the home jam and jelly maker. You will want some of this delicious jelly preserve and butter in the preserve closet.

Wash the apples and then drain and remove the blossom and stem ends. Now cut the apples in pieces and placin a preserving kettle. Use one-half peck of apples and add sufficient cold water to come within two inches of covering the apples in the kettle. Bring to the boiling point and cook until the apples are very soft. Let cook, Turn, quar. to the boiling point and cook until the apples are very soft. Let cool. Turn

Cook slowly, stirring frequently until thick, like applebutter. Store in ster-flized crocks or bowls and cover with melted paraffin.

Crabapple Marmalade

Wash one-quarter peck of crabapples and then cut in quarters and response the seeds and created for the seeds move the seeds and cores. Cover seeds

Tor spiced elderberry preserve add the spice as directed in spiced crabapple and cores with cold water and bring to the spice as directed in spiced crabapple the spice as directed in spiced crabapple. and cores with cold water and bring to boil. Cook slowly for fifteen minutes.

Strain and measure. Now add sufficient water to make one quart. Add the crabapples and boil for twenty minutes.

Let cool. Measure and return to the preserving kettle. Boil for fifteen minutes and add two-thirds of a plan of sugar to every pint of fruit and juice.

Stir to dissolve the sugar and then seek slowly minutes and add two-thirds of a plan of sugar to every pint of fruit and juice. eugar to every pint of fruit and julce.

Stir to dissolve the sugar and then cook slowly until very thick. Store in bowls, crocks, etc. Cover with melted utes. Let cool and then the cook slowly until very thick is the cook slowly until very thick.

Spiced Crabapple Cheese This old-fushioned sweet is delightful rith cold meats, rousts, etc. Wash with cold meats, roasts, etc. Wash one-quarter peck of erabapples and then cut in pieces. Place in preserving kettle and cover to within two inches of top of apples with cold water. Heat slowly

> WHAT'S WHAT By RELEN DECIF

Please Tell Me . What to Do By CYNTHIA

Enjoyed "Bachelor's" Letter

Dear Cynthia—I read with pleasure the letters in this column, and especially the "Bachelor's Lament," and I heartly agree with him about the Jazzing John-nies. Now, as for the matter of a good-night kiss, I do not entirely agree. If Theo asked lazily of the steward, who had come out to adjust the deck awning for her.

"It looks that way, miss." he returned, respectfully, "But you needn't worry, you'll be perfectly safe."

Theo laughed. "Oh. I'm not afraid. I think a storm at sea would be rather interesting," she returned. "Do you know where we are?"

"Somewhere off the coast of Vir-"

"Somewh

Do Not Meet Him Again

Dear Cuthia-1 am a girl seventeen years of age. I met a fellow quite a while age and went with him until a OUT on deck with a magazine propped up before her Theo reviewed the situation. She was furiously angry whenever she thought of the attitude Blakeslee had adopted toward her and his threat to force her to comply with his wishes. Her cheeks burned with recentment when she remembered the way he had spoken to her, and yet, something in her responded to this dominating element in him, and she mentally contrasted his strength of purpose with Jimmy's flabbiness.

"But Jimmy's never had a chance," she told herself passionately, determined to be true to him even in thought.

"He's never made a chance," mocked her season and with the companion she was really fright.

"He's never made a chance," mocked her season and with a magain and ask him thought.

"He's never made a chance," mocked her season and with a magain and ask him thought.

"He's never made a chance," mocked her season and with a magain and ask him at thought.

"He's never made a chance," mocked her season and with a magain and ask him at thought.

"He's never made a chance," mocked her season and with a magain and ask him at thought.

"He's never made a chance," mocked her season and with a magain and ask him at thought.

"He's never made a chance," mocked her season and with a magain and ask him at thought.

"He's never made a chance," mocked her season and with a magain and ask him at thought.

"He's never made a chance," mocked her season and with a magain and ask him at thought.

"He's never made a chance," mocked her season and with a magain and ask him at thought.

"He's never made a chance," mocked her season and with a manufactural to be the season and with a manufactural to the was narried. It was in trying to speak to him over the phone that I found the was in trying to speak to him over the phone that I found the was in trying to speak to him over the phone that I found the was in trying to speak to him over the phone that I found the was in trying to speak to him over the phone, that I wan to ut. His wis in the was in trying to speak to him over

The Candy Will Be Enough
Dear Cynthia—It certainly is a great thing for us young folks that the Evening Puraid Ledger allows us space in their wonderful paper to bein the young folks in their troubles. You have helped me before and I am sure that you will do the same again.
I met a young lady of about the same age as I am—18—and it seems that we both took a liking to each other, although we know each other for only two days.
As I am going to leave this city for college, I am thinking of taking this girl to a show before I leave, which will be in a very short time. Will it be proper for me to present her with a gift as a sort of remembrance, and what as a nort of remembrance, and what kind of a gift do you think would be proper, as I hardly think I will have a chance to write her? Is it proper for me to buy a box of candy for the girl while at the show?

A STUDENT IN DOUBT It would be nicer to buy a box of candy, a handsome box, and give it to the girl after the theatre, or else have it sent to her after you leave. Surely you will have time to send a few lines now and then if you really intend to keep up the friendship.

"M. X." Is on "Stenog's" Side

And I think the Stenog, Pat and Henry are having a fine time, ha! ha! It makes me laugh, Cynthia, dear, to

One-half teaspoon of ginger.

Tie the spices in a piece of cheese-cloth and cook the pulp for fifteen min-ture. Now add two-thirds plut of its true.

Now add two-thirds plut of sugar for every pint of pulp and site to discuss she the sugar well. Cook slowly until thick like applebuter. Remove the spice bag and store in usual jelly manner.

Crabapple Preserve

Wash the apples and then cut in quarters and remove the cores and weight and quarters and remove the cores and weight and quarters and remove the cores and weight they said as for in usual felly manner.

Crabapple Preserve

Wash the apples and then cut in quarters and remove the cores and weight they said as few injutes and remove the cores and weight they said as few injutes and remove the cores and weight they said as few injutes and remove the cores and weight they said as few injutes and remove the cores and weight they said as few injutes and remove the cores and weight they said as few injutes and remove the cores and weight they said as few injutes and remove the cores and weight they said as few injutes and remove the cores and weight they said as few injutes and remove the cores and weight they said as few injutes and remove the cores and weight they said as few injutes and remove the cores and weight they said as few injutes and remove the cores and weight they said as few injutes and remove the cores and weight the said and wint and also next spring. The world like party from they are big enough to show in the nicture—another present and remove the cores and weight the found and as of sugar injutes and remove the cores and weight the frient, and it would ilke to meet a young and store in usual jelly manner.

Crabapple Preserve

Wash the apples and then cut in quarters and remove the cores and weight the party from Henry will be either and some allowed as the party and beat upon his shield with the bad until the party from the party and beat upon his shield with the bad would like one a masterplece—she was giving mit young the first in the first to dissolve the sugar and then cook for five innites. Then add two pounds of preserving kettle and boll the judy and the preserving through a large fine sizes. Measure Rub the poll first in the judy a large first size and one-half level and add to every two quarts.

One-half level teappoon of cinnaman, One persona reverse this philosophy, neglecting to improve themselves, so busily are they engaged in trying to improve themselves, so busily are they engaged in trying to improve themselves, so busily are they engaged in trying to improve their lectures from people right, as Dr. Heuser said.

Crystal Beads

Perpetual uplifters are perjetually represented by the philosophy and the presence are lost and personal uplifters are perjetually represented by the philosophy and the presence are lost and presented and the presence are lost and presented and the presence are lost and presented and the presence are lost and an including the present and if huned the presence are lost and an including the present and if huned the presence are lost and an including the present and if huned the presence are lost and an including the present and if huned the presence are lost and an including the present and if huned the presence are lost and an including the presence are lost and an including the present and in the lituration. In a pleasant social gathering no one wents to be called down for any supposed infraction of the uplifter's special model like a pestilence, the sureat way is to go about with a "mission" to recommend the presence are many the process of the line. A trailing sask of self material is the only other the right of the rind over the board. Then sprinkle with a soap is to go about with a "mission" to recommend the presence of the rind over the presence are the presence are lost and the story of this time are perjectual.

Save Lemon Rind

A'ter using the juice of issuants as a felly.

The presence are perjectually if the high configuration in respective, you must watch in the fashion future of white the substitution in the fashion future of white the substitution in the fashion future of white the pr

SIMPLICITY GIVES REAL SMARTNESS

The simpler the lines, the more stylish the dress or wrap. But, just to make up for the lack of fussiness in cut, a dress may add rows of silk fringe, while a wrap takes to itself a shoulder cape of silk elaborately braided in a lighter shade of its own color. And, by the way, the capes this year will not be quite so wrappy as the ones of last season, with more breadth around the bottom and a more ample cut

Through a Woman's Eyes

What the Picture Told

drip. Do not squerze or press the bag, but just let the natural weight and add one cup of boiling water. Stir of the applies extract the juice. Meast to dissolve the sugar and then cook for preserving kettle and return it to a clean preserving kettle and both the juice and return it to a clean preserving kettle and both the juice and return it to a clean preserving kettle and both the juice and return it to a clean preserving kettle and both the juice and return it to a clean preserving kettle and both the sugar and then cook for Thinks "Stenog" is a Pickle and both the juice and return it to a clean preserving kettle and both the juice and return it to a clean preserving kettle and both the juice and return it to a clean preserving kettle and both the juice and return it to a clean preserving kettle and both the juice and return it to a clean preserving kettle and both the juice and through the beautiful the juice and return it to a clean preserving kettle and add one cup of boiling water. Stir favor.

Thinks "Stenog" is a Pickle property of the sugar and the cook for the kind these Johnnie boys meet in the interest and through the verses brought on by her husband's ill-favor.

Thinks "Stenog" is a Pickle property of the sugar and the cook for the kind these Johnnie boys meet in the interest and through the verses brought on by her husband's ill-favor.

Thinks "Stenog" is a Pickle property of the sugar and the cook for the kind these Johnnie boys meet in the interest and through the verses brought on by her husband's ill-favor. reses brought on by her hisbands and reses, she had struggled on at his disgust had risen to high tide and was side; and, as she had so often told, on about to break into a torrent of words.

"I say you nay," cried the black all over her countenance, preening her-self and looking as if to say, "Are you

The Question Corner

Today's Inquiries

What innovation in washday helps is a great boon to the mother who likes to do baby's nundry herself? 2. Why is it hard on the eyes read when lying down in hed if there is a good light? 3. In giving advice about the proper interval at which to wash the hair what do experts agree I. From what eruel custom does the expression "get the sack," meaning to be discharged, come from?

What interesting style of drapery is becoming more and more popular in georgette crepe and crepe de chine? 6. Describe the ensiest way to acquire an exquisitely embroidered vest in a silk dress.

Yesterday's Answers

 A convenient device just being introduced is a glass cap with a straight handle, which fits over a lemon and can easily be turned around on the squeezer without burting or soiling the hands.

2. Before using a new brush to paint or varnish run the bristles through the fingers to dislodge every bit of dust. When no more dust comes out wash with tur entine. Make a substitute pen or pencil clip out of a paper clip and a rubber band, bending the clip into a hump and fastening it to the pen with the elastic. "Crossing the Rubicon" means taking a step that cannot be re-traced. It originated in the time when Caesar crossed the Rubicon River knowing that the act would nake him an enemy of the re-To get the same thing in a diffor cour swenter by plaining three strands of yarn made into "horselines" so that it looks like the leather belts worn so much

Some striking two-colored shoes are white buckskin strap slippers with the straps and edges made of blue leather.

DREAMLAND ADVENTURES

By DADDY "The Toyville Ball"

Jack and Janet, made small, go to the Toyville ball with the toys. There they pass through the golden ring which makes every one what one wants to be. Janet becomes a princess and a knight comes to woo her.

Where was Jack? That was one of the secrets of the golden ring. Each slightly messy.

Not that she doesn't try to keep it person passing through it could be made what he wished to be, but could not tell who he really was. All sorts of tell who he really was. All sorts of the signed, letters to be answered, ink things, pencil things—and there always things, pencil things—and there always things, pencil things. strange persons came flocking about every one was changed in some way. As a matter of fact they were the toys, but their wishes had just mixeds them up. Thus the kewpie had wished to be an Indian doll and the Indian doll had wished to be a rag doll; the jumping jack had wished to be a china pig bank, and the china pig bank had wished to be a horse. The toy animals were no longer made of wood, of iron, of tin, of paper, or of cloth. They were real meat animals, though as small as the toy animals had The lions growled and looked The Teddy bears sniffed hungrily about. The wooden elephant looked like a circus clephant, while the jointed mule had been changed into a showing the signs of wear.

Starch or its freshness.

She can wear a frai', wide collar and it as a matter of course, as a matter of course, it as a matter of course, handsome prancing horse. The wooden elephant in his wish as he had gone through the ring had desired not only to be a real meat ele-phant, but also to be the elephant of a princess. So when he saw Princess Janet he went straight to her and knelt before her so she could step into the very grand as she seated herself there. The jointed mule in wishing to be a andsome prancing horse had also handsome prancing horse had also wished to be the horse of a bold knight.

the jointed mule to the knight.
"Right gladly will I do that," said the bold knight, "and you shall battle no longer a little monkey. He was now thicker, too a huge ape and his hand organ had become a street piano which sounded as loud as a circus band. The toy folks paraded to their hearts centent, and they danced and they played games. It was a very jolly ball and every one was happy. All the time the bold knight kept close to Princess Janet, telling her stories of Lrave knights and gallant deeds.

"And I will do gallant deeds for you, fair princess." cried the bold knight. He dashed out in front of the whole say you nay," cried the black consciously from the eyes, the shape of the head, the nose, the chin and from the general physical appearance. But so far as our instinctive judgthey want to make me-I'd rather wear ginglam than these silks and jewels-But so far as our instinctive judg-ments are concerned the ear might as but I want everything to show, all the things with which they shower their lave on me. I want to show it to the world!"

The old woman paused to catch her breath while the artist remained silent.

The old woman paused to catch her breath while the artist remained silent.

"And, Miss Murfel?" she rushed on,
"if any one ever tells you it doesn't to mind three persons whom you know pay to love your husband and suffer look like from the side, and see how with him and bring up children, look at me! I lost my youth, but does it with him and bring up children, look at me! I lost my youth, but does it pay, with three such sons who are a sweetheart to their mother? Did you see my new ring from Jack? And papa! Oh, Miss Muriel, make me look like they want me to; make me look like they want me to; make me look shine enough to show the love that is shining through!"

The brainy ear, so called, is an ear which in general contour is quite wide across the top, and tapers rather steadily to a narrow point at the lobe. Its general effect tends toward the triangular rather than the round or trinngular rather than the round or square. is an indication of predominance of mind over body. People who possess it are inclined to be fond of books, fond of speculation (mental not finan-And Mrs. Frant's picture? Anybody could have read the story in it; the brush had been dipped in the soft, transfiguring tints of mother joy and mother pride. A new Madonna gazed out wistfully and bother and bother pride. A new Madonna gazed out wistfully and bother pride.

Tomorrow-Black Eyes.

You may think all corn flakes are alike until you taste-

The artist could not speak. She re-tembered her own mother's rapture at he modest little trinkets her brother and sent her from far-away parts, and her (Mariel's) surprise at her old mether's sudden appearance decked out

CHRYST

Post Toasties -best corn flakes

Then you'll understand why the flavor, crispness and texture make "Post Toasties" the superior kind.

Being Neat Without Any Trouble Is Something Few of Us Are Gifted With

It Is a Marvel to the Rest of Us to See Others Keep Their Collars Clean and Their Desks Tidy

There they pass through the golden ring which makes every one what one wants to be. Janet becomes a princess and a knight comes to woo her.

CHAPTER IV

Bold Knight and Black Knight

JANET felt little thrills of joy tickling her heart. She had been made a princess by going through the golden ring at the Toyville ball, and golden ring at the Toyville ball, and here, just as she wished, was a bold in a very light thin dress a large amount of dust seems to appear out of nowhere and envelop her.

Where was Jack? That was one strange persons came flocking about seems to be one or two stray papers, a Janet and the night. Many looked like lost pencil or an erring pen filling up the toys who had come to the ball, but some space that should be open and un-She loves nice, enrefully dressed hair, > coon as she steps out into the air a . It just seems to happen in the way gentle breeze comes along and dislodges that the rabbit seems to grow out of the it in spite of a hair net, plenty of invisible hairpins, and a hat!

>
> She can keep respectable only by dint of hard labor.
>
> magician's high bat.
>
> And she is so surprised, so amused, when you compliment her upon her accomplishment.

BUT the girl with the gift of neataring thin cults for days without their thought to refer to their howing the signs of wear.

They don't seem to get soiled, and lack as a "natural-born gift, and if yea haven't got it, there's no use thying."

She can go out in a hustling auto-mobile without a veil, and arrive at her destination with every lock, every her just where it ought to be. And with a desk she is a joy; that, where the real giftness of her neather She can approach a perfectly hopeless table crowded with pape—1. jammed with notebooks, paste jars, two telephoness and a pair of scissors with complete

. Talking screnely she juggles a few times, shifts a number of turns, passes her hands careless'y and indifferently over the chaos before her and take a trip or two to the files. I ing on the table but two telephones a small pile of papers and a notebook and a pair of scissors. All the rest is beautiful, smooth open water. How she does it is a mystery to those who know nothing of the art of being with every lock in place.

But she cannot have it, because as neat without trying.

> complishment.
>
> 'Oh, I just fix things up!' she exclaims, as if she had not just finished a colossal task.

for several days without its losing its PEOPLE who have this faculty don't starch or its freshness.

The Woman's Exchange

Training the Plant

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—I have a shamrock plant but do not know how it should be I look rather old in it.

A FAITHFUL READER trained. Should it be let grow to hang wished to be the horse of a bold knight, so when he saw the knight coming to woo the Princess Janet, he pranced up to him.

"Take me for your war horse," said the jointed mule to the knight.

"Right sladle will I do that would be seems to fail. I have had it since March and would like to raise it, but if I tie it around sticks it seems to grow over or twine on itself.

MRS. N.

"Right gladly will I do that." said the bold knight, "and you shail battle with me in many a brave joust."

The bold knight mounted his steed and side by side with Princess Janee on the elephant they paraded out on the lawn just like a circus.

There Pietro, the monkey, was still making merry music. But Pietro was no longer a little mankey. He was now thicker, too.

"Right gladly will I do that." said the said that should be allowed plenty of room to spread, and it would be best to place it in a wide, low flower-pot of a pan. These plants are not supposed to grow very high. So I would advise you to clip the sprays that reach up too far, letting them trail slightly over the side of the dish in a graceful manner. If you keep clipping it at intervals, it will spread out better, and will grow thicker, too.

Wants Dress Like Picture the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—I clipped a pattern from your paper and have tried to ge; one like it, but none of the stores seems to carry it in stock. Kindly let me know to carry it in stock. Kind what standard make it is. There are no patterns published to fit these designs, but even though they are original, you can get a pattern that has the same foundation, and follow the picture that you liked, in order to carry out the clever finishing touches.

and what style can I make, as I am rather thin and tall? Could you tell me the leading shade they will wear this season as I think black is not becoming?

A FAITHFUL READER.

Shades of brown will be worn a great deal this fall, so why not choose a soft, light tan, if you do not wish the dress to be strictly for evening wear? This color would be becoming to you, no doubt. Choose chiffon or Canton crepe for your material. You can have the waist rather long and bloused prestily with a panel effect both front and back. Crystal beads always make a beautifully effective trimming, and will give the frock a dressy appearance if they adorn the girdle and are made to finish the edges of the panels. Things You'll Love to Make

Hand Embroidered Sock

The Tea of Teas Always

Deliciously Different to the Ordinary.

For 30 Years the

Preserved and Sold only Standard of Excellence in Sealed Metal Packets

Hickory Garters at your dealer: In Five Sizes Twenty-five cents and up depending upon style and size

A.STEIN & COMPANY

PARIS GARTERS Chicago

> Children's HICKORY Garters

New York

YOUR GUARANTEE OF QUALITY